

THE WESTIN
ST. FRANCIS
SAN FRANCISCO
ON UNION SQUARE

CLASSIC. MODERN. TIMELESS.
THE WESTIN ST. FRANCIS ON UNION SQUARE

Known as the “Ultimate Destination in San Francisco,” The Westin St. Francis on Union Square, opened in 1904, has been a symbol of elegance for San Francisco for more than a century. From its supreme location on Union Square to its rich history, stately guestrooms and wealth of amenities, guests will find The Westin St. Francis to be the ideal choice for a visit to The City by the Bay.

The Westin St. Francis boasts 1,195 guestrooms, including 48 suites. The hotel consists of two buildings, providing guests with a choice of staying in the historic Landmark Building or the contemporary Tower, which completed a $20 million renovation in 2014. Guestrooms in the Landmark Building showcase San Francisco’s history and charm with high ceilings, chandeliers and ornate woodwork supplemented by modern furnishings and premier views of Union Square. Tower guestrooms offer spacious accommodations with contemporary finishes, marble bathrooms and large bay windows, plus breathtaking views of famous San Francisco icons. A sampling of guestroom amenities includes 37” flat screen televisions, air conditioning, ergonomic furniture, computer writing desks, plush bathrobes, Westin Heavenly Beds™ with custom pillow top mattresses and Westin Heavenly Baths Heavenly Bath Sheets.™

Located in the heart of downtown San Francisco, The Westin St. Francis is the only hotel situated directly on Union Square. World-class shopping, restaurants and theatres are just steps from the hotel offering visitors many diverse options for activities and attractions; the Financial District, Chinatown and North Beach are just a short walk. San Francisco’s famous cable cars stop right at the front door with direct access to Fisherman’s Wharf. Conveniently located near two international airports, the hotel is just thirty minutes (12 miles) to San Francisco International Airport and 40 minutes (15 miles) to Oakland International Airport.

Guests will enjoy top-rated cuisine and expertly crafted cocktails at two of San Francisco’s finest restaurants and bars, BOURBON STEAK and CLOCK BAR, owned by renowned chef Michael Mina. Skillfully prepared Californian cuisine is served in The Oak Room Restaurant. Open from morning through evening, Caruso’s is a casual dining spot ideal for morning coffee, an afternoon snack or a quick bite on the go. Both restaurants are overseen by Executive Chef Bernd Liebergesell, who during his career at the landmark Westin St. Francis, has crafted menus for royalty, presidents and many high profile celebrities including President Barak Obama, Queen Elizabeth, former President Clinton and former Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Through a partnership with famed Napa Valley winery Chateau Montelena, The Westin St. Francis is home to one of the country’s only hotel tasting rooms where guests and the general public can sample and purchase the extensive selection of wines from the historic Napa Valley winery, including the Chateau Montelena Chardonnay that won in the 1976 Paris Tasting.

Located just off the Landmark Lobby across from the Grand Staircase, The Tasting Room brings a taste of Napa Valley to San Francisco.

Along with 24 hour room service, additional hotel amenities include a full-service spa and gym, a business center, Internet access in guestrooms and public areas, express/video check-out, Les Clefs d'Or Concierge, laundry, valet service and much more.

Ideal for meetings, special events and weddings, The Westin St. Francis features over 56,000 square feet of function space, including 34 unique rooms, all wired with the latest technology. The state-of-the-art TelePresence Room brings clients from all locations together in a true-to-life meeting setting utilizing ultra hi-definition video, superior audio and life-size imagery. The Imperial Floor, located on the 32nd floor of the Tower Building, boasts two spectacular private rooms - Victor's and Alexandra's - with sparkling views of San Francisco through floor to ceiling French pane windows. The historic Grand Ballroom features 10,700 square feet in size, comfortably accommodating up to a 1,500 person reception, or 1,100 people seated. The Colonial Room has a beautiful gold-leaf ceiling, an ornate balcony overlooking the room, and a brilliant Tuscan mural, ideal for formal events of up to a 400 guest reception, or 300 people seated.
