THE WESTIN ST. FRANCIS PARTNERS WITH PELOTON TO OFFER
STATE-OF-THE-ART FITNESS OPPORTUNITIES FOR TRAVELERS

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – JUNE 13, 2017 – The Westin St. Francis is pleased to announce an exciting new partnership with Peloton to give guests exclusive access to new state-of-the-art Peloton bikes. Thanks to this collaboration, busy travelers can now keep up their fitness routines with energizing Peloton bikes in the newly expanded 6,000 square foot WestinWORKOUT® Fitness Studio, open 24 hours and featuring an array of the latest equipment.

One of the hottest new workout crazes among celebrities and fitness fanatics alike, Peloton is revolutionizing the fitness industry with its high-tech bikes. Combining new commercial-grade hardware and software with the best-in-class workout elements, Peloton delivers the most unique, efficient and addictive workout experience on the market. Peloton bikes also merge high-design with modern technology to offer riders access to live and on-demand group cycling classes.

As a leader in wellness within the hospitality industry, The Westin St. Francis is committed to empowering its guests to stay fit by providing thoughtful healthy experiences that allow them to maintain the same active lifestyle as they would at home. As part of its comprehensive health and wellness program, the hotel offers a Gear Lending program in partnership with New Balance, saving the hassle of packing workout clothing and bulky running shoes. Runners can enjoy customized running maps to experience the best of San Francisco's scenery. For those seeking healthier meal options, the SuperFoodsRx menu features food rich in antioxidants, vitamins, minerals, protein and omega-3 fatty acids. Westin® Fresh by The Juicery offers an assortment of nourishing, healthy juices and smoothies.
